Pre-Arrangement Form

Preparing for the death of your pet can be just as important as preparing for the death of a grandparent, parent or a child. You want to make sure your pet gets cremated humanly in as timely a fashion as possible. You don't want to wonder where your pet is or how long they have to wait for the cremation and have the ashes returned.

You can Pre-Arrange today with Companions Forever, so that at the time of loss, your worries about where your pet is being cremated are put to rest. Simply complete the few questions below, and we will mail both you and your veterinarian a pre-arranged Certificate of Cremation. It will give you and your vet detailed instructions about who to contact whenever or wherever your pet's death may be. Our staff will be in constant contact with you throughout the process.
